Demonstratives: Summary Evidence

November 2020

Presenting a mountain of numbers and documents in evidence to judges and juries is often an overwhelming task.

Because the average juror is more likely to remember what they see rather than what they hear, it is helpful to incorporate visual depictions of summary evidence whenever possible.

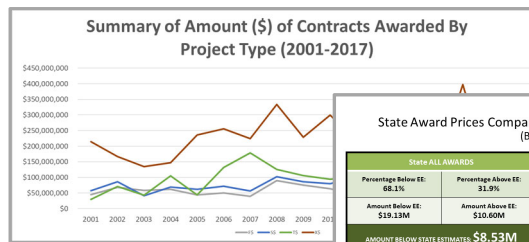

FRE rule 1006 permits the use of “a summary, chart, or calculation to prove the content of voluminous writings, recordings, or photographs that cannot be conveniently examined in court.”

Simply put, demonstrative exhibits can be used to summarize otherwise voluminous evidence (i.e., a chart showing a relevant information contained within a document).

ThemeVision can help creatively prepare visual summaries that effectively and persuasively depict information in ways that oral testimony alone cannot.

Common Summaries include:

- Spreadsheets
- Accounting Records
- Statements
- Invoices
- Payments
- Expenditures
- Cost and Expenses
- Telephone call logs
